COMBINED DECLARATION (REISSUE APPLICATION) AND POWER OF ATTORNEY

Sir:

Kozo Shiokawa, Shinichi Tsuboi, Shinzo Kagabu, Shoko Sasaki, Koichi Moriya and Yumi Hattori, the above-named applicants, declare that:

1. Our residences, post office addresses and citizenships are as stated hereinbelow next to our names.

204020 " 62129001

2. We believe we are the original, first and joint inventors of the subject matter described and claimed in United States Letters Patent (hereinafter "USP") 4,849,432 granted July 18, 1989, and in the application filed June 6, 1994, for reissue of said patent (hereinafter "the reissue application").

3. We hereby state that we have reviewed and understand the contents of the specification of the reissue application and the claims thereof as originally filed and as amended through October 1, 1996.

4. We acknowledge our duty to disclose information which is material to the examination of the reissue application in accordance with Section 1.56 of Title 37, Code of Federal Regulations.

5. We hereby claim foreign priority benefits under Title 35, United States Code, Section 119 of any foreign application for foreign application or inventor's certificate listed below and have also identified any foreign application for patent or inventor's certificate having a filing date before that of the application of which priority is claimed:

Prior Foreign Application:

Number	Country	Date	Priority Claimed
SHO 61-48629	Japan	March 7, 1986	Yes

Such priority was claimed in USP 4,849,432, now sought to be reissued.

6. We verily believe that said USP 4,849,432 is wholly or partly inoperative or invalid by reason of an inconsistency between claims 1 and 9.

7. We believe the whole or part inoperativeness or invalidity of USP 4,849,432 resides in that claim 1 of USP 4,849,432 claims "A" as only ethylene but patent claim 9 indirectly depends upon claim 1 and embraces "A" as both ethylene and propylene. Thus, there is an inconsistency between the claims which reflects on the validity of patent claim 9. Specifically, Title 35, United States Code, Section 112, paragraph four, requires that "a claim in dependent form shall contain a reference to a claim previously set forth and then specify a further limitation of the subject matter claimed." Patent claim 9 refers to patent claim 8, which, in turn, refers to patent claim 1, but patent claim 9 does not further limit the subject matter of patent claim 1. Accordingly, patent claim 9 appears to be wholly or partly inoperative or invalid in view of Title 35, United States Code, Section 112, paragraph four.

8. The error in patent claim 9 arose without any deceptive intent on our parts. During the original prosecution of the patent, our U.S. patent counsel, Leonard Horn, filed an amendment dated September 26, 1988. In this amendment, he amended original claim 2 to delete the possibility that "A" is trimethylene. Then original claim 2 later became patent claim 1. However, through inadvertence and mistake, he did not make a similar change in original claim 19. Then original claim 19 became patent claim 9. Accordingly, there developed through inadvertence and mistake an inconsistency between patent claim 1 and patent claim 9 that renders patent claim 9 wholly or partly inoperative or invalid as stated above.

9. On information and belief, the error was discovered by our U.S. patent counsel, Leonard Horn, in Spring 1994. At that time, there were discussions between patent counsel for Nihon Bayer Agrochem K.K., which owns USP 4,849,432, and Bayer Aktiengesellschaft, which is the parent of Nihon Bayer Agrochem K.K., and U.S. patent counsel, Leonard Horn. The discussions concerned what could be done to provoke an interference with USP 4,948,798 granted August 14, 1990, to Laurenz Gsell and assigned to Ciba-Giegy Corporation. Again, on information and belief, it was in connection with those discussions that our U.S. patent counsel, Leonard Horn, had to study the patent claims in great detail, and, in so doing, discovered the error in patent claim 9.

10. On July 9, 1996, during the prosecution of the reissue application, our U.S. patent counsel, Leonard Horn, filed an amendment making patent claim 9 "independent", i.e., deleting the reference to patent claim 8, and, thereby, also the indirect reference to patent claim 1. We are informed that the Examiner accepted this amendment on August 19, 1996. Therefore, patent claim 9, if reissued in this form, clearly would be free from the aforementioned error discussed in original patent claim 9.

11. We, hereby, declare that all statements made herein of our own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the application or any patent issuing thereon.
